

Sandown Town Council is working with Christ Church and the IOW Council, to coordinate tributes and condolences from the community of Sandown following the passing of HRH Queen Elizabeth II.

Christ Church will be open this Wednesday, 14 September 2022 between 10 am and 12.30 pm morning as a place of quiet prayer and giving space for reflection whilst lighting a candle or laying floral tributes. For other times for Christ Church please check their website or Facebook page:

<https://www.christchurchsandown.org.uk/>

<https://www.facebook.com/Christ-Church-Sandown-106896880965705>

There is also a book of condolence available to record thoughts, prayers and messages that will be relayed to the Royal Family.

The Isle of Wight Council also has a book of condolence at Sandown Library which is open:

Tuesday	09:00 - 12:30 13:30 - 17:00
Thursday	09:00 - 12:30 13:30 - 17:00
Friday	09:00 - 12:30 13:30 - 17:00
Saturday	09:00 - 12:30 13:30 - 16:30

A National Condolence Online Book is also available to sign National Condolence Online Book

Anyone wishing to lay flowers in tribute, should do so at Church Litten in Newport. Signs are in place to advise where floral tributes may be placed.

All Councillors and members of staff at Sandown Town Council send their deepest condolences to The Royal Family at this difficult and sad time.

God Save the King.